

Complaint and Appeal Form for Members enrolled in SeniorCare Complete (HMO SNP) or AbilityCare (HMO SNP)

Complaint: A written or spoken statement saying that you have a problem or concern about your covered services or care. This includes any concerns about the quality of your care, our network providers, or our network pharmacies. The formal name for a 'complaint' is 'grievance'.

Appeal: A way for you to challenge our action if you think we made a mistake and you do not agree with our decision. (Example: asking us to change our mind about denying a prior authorization request or a coverage determination request for a service.)

For more information about your rights and the complaint or appeal processes, please read Chapters 8 and 9 of your Evidence of Coverage/Member Handbook, or call Member Services at the number listed below.

Please complete this form to the best of your ability and return it by mail, fax, or by hand delivery. If you have any questions while completing this form, call Member Services at the number listed below.

Section 1: Important Information Regarding an Appeal or Complaint

According to federal and state guidelines, you have 65 days from the date of the notice of agency action (e.g. denial, termination or reduction notice) to file an appeal with us. Medicaid-only and Part C integrated grievances can be filed at any time; Part D grievances need to be filed no later than 60 (sixty) calendar days from the date of the incident. We are unable to consider requests that are received after the deadline, unless there is a valid reason for the delay (as determined by regulatory requirements and our health plan). If this form is being submitted after the deadline, please state the reason why your request is late.

Civil Rights Complaints

You have the right to file a discrimination complaint if you believe you were treated in a discriminatory way by South Country. You may also contact any of the following agencies directly to file a discrimination complaint.

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights (OCR)

You have the right to file a complaint with the OCR, a federal agency, if you believe you have been discriminated against because of any of the following:

- race
- color
- national origin
- age
- disability
- sex
- religion (in some cases)

Contact the OCR directly to file a complaint:

Minnesota Department of Human Services (DHS)

You have the right to file a complaint with DHS if you believe you have been discriminated against in our health care programs because of any of the following:

- race
- color
- national origin
- religion (in some cases)
- age
- disability (including physical or mental impairment)
- sex (including sex stereotypes and gender identity)

Complaints must be in writing and filed within 180 days of the date you discovered the alleged discrimination. The complaint must contain your name and address and describe the discrimination you are complaining about. We will review it and notify you in writing about whether we have authority to investigate. If we do, we will investigate the complaint.

DHS will notify you in writing of the investigation's outcome. You have the right to appeal if you disagree with the decision. To appeal, you must send a written request to have DHS review the investigation outcome. Be brief and state why you disagree with the decision. Include additional information you think is important.

If you file a complaint in this way, the people who work for the agency named in the complaint cannot retaliate against you. This means they cannot punish you in any way for filing a complaint. Filing a complaint in this way does not stop you from seeking out other legal or administrative actions.
